The Striders decided to run on the outside of the park due to the fact that most of the course was a swamp. Paul Gerlach made a rare appearance to tell us he is due for hip surgery in the coming months. He also reported that his father Neil was in the hospital for 2 weeks for an infection following prostate surgery. Paul reports is father is home and slowly recovering. He wish them both well. Howard V. brought party favors and pastries to celebrate his 59th birthday last week.
