The soggy course slowed down the runners, but no one was trapped in the mud. Brian Sheridan, who ran a 50K race last week-end, led the 5 miles until the last 440 yards when Agnes Berkevic put on her famous kick to win the race. Libby Harvey Hill, running her 1st cross-country race at Riis got lost on the 1st lap, but still ran exactly 5 miles. Cheryl Benson arrived at 10:35 to cheer on the runners.

Bill Thom urged all Striders to sign up for the Thanksgiving Race via the computer. Ken Schuch is the 1st runner to have done so which makes him the Captain of the A Team.
