What a terrible day to run, especially for the end of April. It was near 40 with wind and a slight drizzle. Unfortunately for Jay a hard falling of graupel came during his final run and blanketed the park. Everyone else at the park ran for cover. Brian Sheridan brought his Boston Marathon finisher medal for all to admire and Paul Angarone brought some beer---hopefully we'll have some on a warm Saturday soon. Ken Dietz visited Strider Renee in warm and sunny Tennessee and she sent warm wishes to all.
