The biggest turnout of the cross country season saw 79 year-old Richard "Killer" Kowalski came up from Alabama to run with the Striders and buy a 40 year shirt. He hadn't been at Riis Park since the 1980's. Mark Blaszczyk brought Paczki to honor his 62nd birthday. Cheryl Benson ran to Riis, but refused to race because of the heat. The Melo family is headed to Ecuador for a vacation.
