Previous days rains left the course wet and soft and caused high humidity as the temps rose. The Striders were inconvenienced by the closing of the nearby parking lot for the blessing of the motorcycles. Always something. Paul Angarone ran the Police Remembrance 5k at the lakefront in 27:53 and came to the park afterwards with beer. Bill Thom also brought some beer and Brian Sheridan brought water, grapes, beer, guacamole and chips. Dan Nieves ran his 1st Riis race but succumbed to the humidity.
